Crescenta Valley claims first victory, outclasses Hoover

Los Angeles Daily News 12:00 a.m. 10/15/2005

Crescenta Valley High of La Crescenta finally found its way to victory Friday night, rebounding from its first shutout loss in nine years with a convincing 38-12 Pacific League triumph over Hoover of Glendale at Glendale High School.

Chris Bernabel rushed for 170 yards and a touchdown on 18 carries and Eric Eberhart added two touchdowns for Crescenta Valley (1-5), which won its league opener after starting the season 0-5 for the first time since 1987.

Bryan Harter passed for 133 yards and ran for a touchdown for the Falcons.

Alex Pantoja rushed for 109 yards on 16 carries, with a 67-yard touchdown run in the first quarter, to lead Hoover (3-3).
